Re - Miss Fiona Young

I have known Fiona Young since she was an infant and have always found her to be a pleasant, courteous, honest and good natured girl.

I have known Fiona and her family through church for some considerable time and have found her very willing and able to assist in whatever way she can.

I am sure that Fiona will be an asset to your company and will endeavour to do her utmost to meet whatever the requirements of the post might be.

Yours Faithfully,

Stanley Kilpatrick B.Sc.(Hons)

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Miss Fiona Young, 70 Sharon Street, Dalry

I have known Fiona over most of her life, and in the past five years or so have been very happy to have her involved in mission teams with me, particularly in the area of children's holiday clubs.

I have found her to be conscientious in whatever she is involved in, working very well with children and relating positively to them. She is willing and adaptable, and can be relied on to undertake whatever she is asked, to the best of her abilities. She is reliable and trustworthy, and with her sense of humour is an asset to whatever team she is working with.

I have no hesitation in recommending her.

Scotland For Christ

Dear family,

I'm Fiona young and i live in a wee town in Ayrshire in bonny Scotland! I am a sister to Ruth my twin sister and Phil my older brother. I love my family. I love music and playing the drums. My hobbies are making cards, photography, baking and fitness. I am an active member of Towhead Christian Fellowship (a church in Stevenston) which has given me the opportunity to help children in church activities.

I am a caring, dedicated, friendly, fun and enthusiastic individual which will hopefully become clearer as I become part of your family. I love working with children and I relate to them well. I get on well with them and have a way of communicating with them that they understand and they grow to like me too. I've been involved in various church activities such as, Sunday school, camps, holiday's clubs, summer mission teams etc. which have given me the experience and a great opportunity to work with children of all ages. I've also just finished a Christmas time job in a hotel as one of Santa's elves, which was unbelievable fun. I really like working with them and getting to know them and how they tick. I am also very aware of child protection issues having attended several courses. I would love to be a part of your family as my passion is to care for and help others.

I hope this gives you a bit of an insight to me and who i am and i look forward to hearing from you soon!

Fiona
